

Play Therapy Consultation Group

The group experience will provide consultation on the utilization of play therapy skills and the application of play therapy techniques and approaches.

Who Should Attend?

Therapists interested in expanding their repertoire of child and play therapy skills and further developing their own practice models.

What to Expect:

- A safe, collegial environment to a closed group (Min 5 Max 10 participants).
- Opportunities for case presentations and consultations based on the entire spectrum of child intervention models.
- Over the noon hour, we will have an opportunity to be led through a mindful practice exercise (Loving Kindness Meditation). The exercise will be followed by discussion related to introducing this practice with children of various ages (Guest Instructor Kathy Pankratz).
- Nutrition breaks and lunch will be provided.

What to Bring:

- Participants are invited to bring a case they would like consultation on.

About the Consultants:

Monique Gougeon and Patti Sutherland are Certified Child and Play Therapists and Supervisors with the Canadian Association of Child and Play Therapy.
